

Earth Changes. Pole Shift. Coming Soon.

This is not fear mongering. My research reaches back more than a half century and makes it very clear the earth is due for another pole shift in our immediate future.

Ben Davidson presents his understanding of how these changes may unfold in this video, basing the shift on the reduced earth's magnetic polarity and solar activity of the sun of our solar system. Ben, however, does not take into account the 3612 year cyclical return of Hercolubus/Nibiru/Planet X, which I have come to understand combines with the elements he presents to serve as the trigger to force the pole shift. I have written to Davidson and his assistant for comment about what I see as this key factor, but have received no response.

Ben presents some fundamental projections/predictions of what is in our immediate future in this 15 minute video. Safe Zones and Disaster Zones \(youtube.com\)

Most on my mailing list have seen this interview from 1999 of the famed Chilean astronomer/visionary Carlos Ferrada speaking of the imminent cyclical 3612 year return of Hercolubus/Nibiru/Planet X.

Edgar, who curates this site, writes "the early date for the Exodus (Moses and the Israelites), 1586 BC, is supported by the record of the Hyksos kings." [The

Dating of Exodus | Nibiru Update 2023](#)

Adding 1586 BC to our current year 2024 AD totals 3610 years, meaning we can expect Hercolubus in 2026. In other writing Edgar more specifically predicts this comet/planetary "trigger" to be pulled between December 2026 and April, 2027.

I learned of this coming event for planet earth over 50 years ago because my primary mentor/visionary Lloyd Meeker/Uranda spoke of the Biblically recorded parting of the waters of the Red Sea by which Moses and the Israelites escaped Egypt being due to the proximity/interaction of this rogue planet with the earth...with exactly the same time references.

As I see it, mankind, male and female (!!) are on earth, incarnate, to serve our very Source, our Father, Spirit, to tend and keep this garden planet, Eden, to bless and uplift all this, our creation, to ever higher and more radiant function. We are not here to be preoccupied with the world of form, denying Spirit, in ceaseless battle to claim "ownership" of the most stuff! Ultimately ownership of the entire meant-to-be sacred planet!!!

Come out of her my people!

These coming events, as I see it, represent Life Itself, Our Creator if you will, stepping in to help bring balance once again, to erase the insanity CAUSED by the juvenile adherents of Satan and their myriad self-serving, self-preoccupied sycophants and the somnolent masses who live in blind, unconscious fear and blow with the wind. It is time to return to serving Spirit, or be removed from interfering with the Divine purpose of Life on this Sacred Planet.
